Aug 24: Icy Strait Point: Encounter authentic Alaska in this Native-owned haven where wildlife outnumbers people. Watch for breaching whales and coastal brown bears, explore lush trails, or ride one of the world's largest ziplines. Enjoy fresh-caught seafood in a waterfront cannery turned restaurant, and experience the spirit of Alaska alive in every moment.

Aug 25: Sitka. Immerse yourself in Sitka's rich blend of Russian history and Tlingit culture. Tour the onion-domed cathedral, stroll vibrant downtown shops, and admire totem poles in the forest. Keep your eyes peeled for bald eagles and sea otters along the rugged shoreline. Sitka is a gem you'll never forget.

Aug 26: Skagway: Step back into the Klondike Gold Rush amid boardwalks and historic saloons. Ride the White Pass & Yukon Route railway for breathtaking mountain vistas and glacial valleys. Wander trails lined with wildflowers or shop for handmade treasures. Skagway's colorful past and stunning scenery promise an unforgettable day of exploration.

Aug 27: Hubbard Glacier: Hubbard Glacier is 76 miles long, 7 miles wide, and rises 350 feet above the waterline where it meets the bay. Watch as massive chunks of brilliant blue ice crash into the water, a process called calving that the Tlingit people call "White Thunder." The echoing booms and shimmering icebergs create an awe-inspiring spectacle you'll remember forever. Few places on Earth feel this raw and powerful.
