

YOUR ITINERARY

Sep 9: Fairbanks. Fly to Fairbanks and check into your hotel for the night.

Sep 10: Fairbanks. Spend the day exploring local history, heritage and culture, beginning with a city highlights tour and a visit to the Museum of the North. Enjoy free time downtown for lunch and shopping, then embark on a cruise on the Chena River aboard an old-fashioned sternwheeler.

Sep 11: Denali: Take in the spectacular scenery from the glass-domed railcars of the Wilderness Express on the train trip to Denali.

Sep 12: Denali. The Tundra Wilderness Tour takes you into Denali National Park along its lone road for the best chances at seeing wildlife. After your tour, spend time at the museum-like visitor center or take advantage of the biking and hiking trails that begin near the park entrance.

Sep 13: Talkeetna. There's time to walk the trails around the lodge before boarding the Wilderness Express heading to Talkeetna. From 5:00 p.m., enjoy a free evening in this funky small town.

Sep 14: Anchorage. The day is free for your style of adventure in this hub for outdoor fun. Your Adventure Specialist can recommend optional activities like flight sight seeing, river rafting and more. Then relax and take in the views from the Wilderness Express on the scenic rail journey into Anchorage.

Sep 15: Seward. Discover the state's diverse indigenous traditions on a guided tour of the the Alaska Native Heritage Center. Then enjoy free time downtown for lunch, shopping or just strolling around before the drive along the Turnagain Arm and along the Chugach Mountains to the coast.

Sep 16: Hubbard Glacier: Hubbard Glacier is 76 miles long, 7 miles wide, and 350 feet above the waterline where it meets the bay. Watch as massive chunks of ice crash into the bay, a process known as calving that the Tlingit people call "White Thunder."

Sep 17: Juneau: Once you arrive you'll find majestic views and rich culture in every corner. With its snowcapped mountains, misty rainforests, massive glaciers and bounty of wildlife, Alaska's remote state capital is the perfect place to dive into nature.

Sep 18: Skagway and Haines: The tiny town of Skagway still looks like it did during the Klondike Gold Rush over 100 years ago—and today it remains an outpost for thrilling Alaskan adventure. An old-time street car ride along bustling Broadway Street reveals preserved buildings, including the state's oldest hotel. You can see engraved walrus tusks at the Corrington Museum, or get lost in riveting historical reenactments around town.

Haines. This evening you will dock in Haines, Alaska. Spend the evening on shore having a drink, dining, and meeting the locals.

Sep 19 Icy Strait Point: The morning is open for optional excursions, with a guided wilderness hike and meeting the sled-racing dogs of the Husky Homestead among the possibilities. Board the glass-domed railcars of the Wilderness Express® train for your journey to Anchorage. From 8:30 p.m., you're free to explore Anchorage and its vibrant city life. Enjoy a romantic dinner or stroll an urban trail in the evening sunlight. Overnight at the Anchorage Marriott.

Sep 20: Ketchikan. The canned salmon capital of the world, it's a hub for fishing and outdoor sports. It's also home to three tribes of Northwest Coast Indians, making it a great place to get a taste for the local culture.

Sep. 21: Inside Passage. Travel down the coast of Canada while watching for whales and other wildlife from the ship!

Sep. 22: Home. Disembark in Vancouver and fly home!
